

Special Issue on Natural Disasters and Extreme Weather

Call for Papers

Natural Resources will be effectively utilized in the development of human society, but sometimes resources can become natural disasters. The power of nature is immeasurable.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original researches and review articles on exploring natural disasters and extreme weather. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Floods and tsunamis
- Droughts and wildfires
- Hurricanes and tornadoes
- Snowstorm
- Environmental protection
- Sustainable development

Authors should read over the journal's Authors' Guidelines carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal at Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue – Natural Disasters and Extreme Weather” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue timetable:

Submission Deadline	July 28th, 2015
