

Special Issue on Family Psychology

Call for Papers

Family psychology is a broad specialty in professional psychology based upon the principles of systems theory with a strong focus on the interpersonal system of the family.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Family Psychology. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Family relationships
- Family therapy and counseling
- Parents' role and behaviors
- Parenting style
- Child & family development
- Marriage and family influences
- Domestic violence
- Child abuse
- Parenthood research
- Sexual abuse and sex behaviors
- Mothers, fathers and family study

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly notice that the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title is supposed to be specified and the research field “Special Issue – Family Psychology” should be chosen during your submission.

According to the following timetable:

Submission Deadline	June 22nd, 2020
Publication Date	August 2020
