

Special Issue on Law, Crime and Justice

Call for Papers

Law, Crime and Justice is a multidisciplinary field that focuses on the study of legal, criminal, and social justice systems. It examines the ways in which laws and legal institutions shape society, as well as how criminal behavior is defined and punished. The goal of this special issue is to provide a platform for scientists and academicians all over the world to promote, share, and discuss various new issues and developments in the area of Law, Crime and Justice.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Law, Crime and Justice. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Criminal justice
- Criminal investigation
- Juvenile justice
- Human trafficking
- Domestic violence
- Drug offenses
- Law, legislation and liberty
- Criminal violence and criminal justice
- Gender, crime, and justice
- Environmental justice: law, policy & regulation
- Criminological analysis
- Penal policy and practices
- Policing policies and policing forms and practices
- Fault and criminal responsibility
- Principles of criminal law

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - Law, Crime and Justice” should be selected during your submission.

Special Issue Timetable:

Submission Deadline	October 12th, 2023
Publication Date	December 2023

Guest Editor:

For further questions or inquiries, please contact Editorial Assistant at blr@scirp.org.