Special Issue on Pediatric Case Reports

Call for Papers

“Pediatric Case Reports” is an academic and clinical research field that documents and analyzes individual cases of diseases, conditions or unusual clinical presentations in infants, children and adolescents. It aims to share rare findings, novel treatments, diagnostic challenges and unique patient outcomes to improve pediatric medical knowledge, guide clinical practice and support medical education. These reports often highlight new insights into pediatric diagnosis, therapy and disease progression.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Pediatric Case Reports. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Rare genetic and congenital disorders
- Neonatal and perinatal case studies
- Pediatric cardiology case reports
- Pediatric gastroenterology
- Pediatric nephrology case
- Pediatric infectious diseases
- Pediatric neurology and neurodevelopment
- Pediatric oncology and hematology
- Pediatric allergy and immunology
- Pediatric endocrinology and metabolic disorders
- Pediatric dermatology
- Pediatric pulmonology and respiratory diseases
- Pediatric otorhinolaryngology
- Adverse drug reactions in children
