

Special Issue on Clinical Management of Chronic Diseases

Call for Papers

Clinical Management of Chronic Diseases focuses on the comprehensive, long-term prevention, diagnosis, treatment, and monitoring of chronic health conditions that require sustained clinical care, such as diabetes, cardiovascular diseases, chronic kidney disease, respiratory disorders, autoimmune conditions, and chronic infections including chronic otitis media. This Special Issue aims to highlight evidence-based clinical strategies, integrated care models, and multidisciplinary approaches that improve disease control, patient adherence, and quality of life. Emphasis is placed on personalized medicine, digital health technologies, comorbidity management, and healthcare system optimization to address the growing global burden of chronic diseases across diverse populations and care settings.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on exploring Clinical Management of Chronic Diseases. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Aging, geriatric care, and chronic disease
- Chronic disease prevention and early intervention
- Clinical decision support systems
- Comorbidity and multimorbidity management
- Digital health and telemedicine in chronic care
- Health policy, economics, and value-based care
- Integrated and multidisciplinary care
- Long-term clinical care models
- Non-pharmacological and lifestyle interventions
- Patient self-management and health education
- Personalized and precision medicine
- Pharmacological management and medication adherence
- Primary care-led chronic disease management
- Quality of life and patient-reported outcomes
- Remote monitoring and wearable technologies
- Specialist and tertiary care approaches

Authors should read over the journal's For Authors carefully before submission. Prospective authors should submit an electronic copy of their complete manuscript through the journal's Paper Submission System.

Please kindly specify the “Special Issue” under your manuscript title. The research field “Special Issue - *Clinical Management of Chronic Diseases” should be selected during your submission.
