
Special Issue on Corporate Finance and Governance

Call for Papers

Corporate Finance and Governance examines financial decision-making and governance structures within corporations. It focuses on capital structure, investment decisions, risk management, financial performance, shareholder value and corporate accountability. The field also explores board governance, executive compensation, regulatory compliance and ethical practices to understand how governance mechanisms influence corporate behavior, financial stability and long-term organizational success.

In this special issue, we intend to invite front-line researchers and authors to submit original research and review articles on Corporate Finance and Governance. Potential topics include, but are not limited to:

- Capital structure and financing decisions
- Corporate valuation and financial analysis
- Investment analysis and portfolio management
- Corporate performance
- Behavioral corporate finance
- Corporate governance and board structure
- Dividend policy and payouts decisions
- Executive compensation and incentives
